“ I would just like to say that, I remember her as a sweet loving person, we had a few coffees together in the mornings. I know. "I probably drove her crazy laughing with April Dew, her daughter." She even gave me a plant one time and I brought her a plant too. I'll never forget you. May you rest in peace in heaven. Hope to see you again in the next life. God bless you and your family. I send my condolences to the family and friends.

Sincerely,
Michele Boing
