NANCY ANN PRIDDLE--Summerville

Devoted Wife, Mother, and Grandmother

Nancy Ann Priddle entered into eternal rest October 2, 2013 surrounded by family and loved ones.

A Memorial Mass will be held on Saturday, October 26, 2013 at 10 o'clock AM at St. John the Beloved Catholic Church, 28 Sumter Avenue, Summerville, SC. Friends and family are invited to attend a reception immediately following the service from 11 o'clock AM until 1 o'clock PM at St. John the Beloved Catholic Church Fellowship Hall.

Born in Columbus, Ohio July 20, 1932 to Stephen and Erma Karsko, Nancy grew up in Columbus, married H. Daniel McGinnis in 1953 and raised her four children there. Following her first husband's death in 1976, Nancy married Ray Priddle on September 1, 1979.

Nancy was a long time resident of the low-country, is survived by her husband, Ray; and her four children: Kathleen (Craig) Reifeis, Daniel (Sharon), Craig (Bonnie), and Sean (Martha) McGinnis; and 13 grandchildren: Adam, Jason, Erin, and Michael Reifeis; Drew and Kyle McGinnis; Ryan, Justin, Brittany and Courtney McGinnis; Kelsey, Lydia, and Patrick McGinnis. She is also survived by her sisters: Helen Hart and Mary Medors; brother, John Karsko (Joyce); and was predeceased by her brother, Bernard Karsko and brothers-in-law Robert Hart and Ron Medors.

Nancy had a passion for travel, was a very talented artist (ceramics, painting and seamstress), loved to play piano and was a huge fan of Script Ohio and the Atlanta Braves, in addition to any sport her children and grandchildren were playing.

A memorial service and celebration of her life will take place the weekend of October 26 at St. John the Beloved Catholic Church in Summerville, SC. Details will be forthcoming via the web page (below).

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Nancy's name to the Salvation Army, or to a charity of your passion in her honor.

Condolence messages for the family may be left on-line at www.jamesadyal.com.
