

Nannie Belle Mitcham

January 3, 1932 - June 20, 2026

Nannie Belle Mitcham, 94, entered into eternal rest surrounded by the love of her family. Born on January 3, 1932, in Madill, Oklahoma, she was the daughter of the late Ennis Collier and Ruby Dudley Collier.

Mrs. Mitcham was the beloved wife of the late George Mitcham. She was a devoted mother to her son, George Mitcham, and took great pride in her family. She was a cherished grandmother to Brandy Mitcham Kane and her husband, George, and a loving great-grandmother to Marc Ryan Kane.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Ennis Collier, Donald Collier, Floris Weber, and Willie Thomas.

Nannie dedicated many years of service as a Cargo Scheduler with Civil Service. She was known for her strong work ethic, dedication, and commitment to her responsibilities.

A longtime member of First Baptist Church of Jedburg, Nannie remained steadfast in her faith throughout her life. Although she had been unable to attend services in recent years, her love for her church family and her faith never wavered.

Formerly of Summerville, South Carolina, Nannie later made her home in Georgia, where she continued to enjoy the love and companionship of her family.

Nannie will be remembered for her kindness, strength, unwavering devotion to her family, and the faith that guided her throughout her life. She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

The family will treasure her memory and find comfort in knowing that she has been reunited with her loved ones who have gone before her.

A Celebration of life service will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, June 26, at James A. Dyal Funeral Home, Oakbrook Chapel, 11000 Dorchester Road, Summerville, SC 29485. Entombment will follow the service.

The family invites relatives and friends to attend and celebrate Nannie's life and legacy.
