Naomi was born on January 2, 1935 in Hendersonville, SC, daughter of the late William St. Elmo Capers Jr. and the late Margie Willis Capers. She graduated from Hendersonville High School class of 1953. She was Miss Hi Miss her senior year of high school. Upon graduation she was employed at Breland Chevrolet Company in Walterboro until the birth of her children. She then became a stay at home mom. Naomi married her childhood sweetheart and they were married 52 years before his passing in 2010. She was an active member of Knightsville United Methodist Church for over 40 years, where she held many offices. She was also a member of Christian Fellowship Circle. She was an expert seamstress. Naomi enjoyed crafting, sewing, quilting and won many ribbons for her work. She always put her family first and considered them her greatest accomplishment and joy. She loved the Lord, her husband, children, and grandchildren, who called her their Mimi, with all of her heart. She lived her life for Christ and serving others and was a true example of a Proverbs 31 woman. We all loved her so and she will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Survivors include: one son: William P. New (Loretta Booker) of Summerville; one daughter: Leslie M. Hannah (Terry) of Summerville; and three grandchildren: Kyle Noelle Hannah (Jacob Collins) of Summerville, Christopher Terry Hannah (Morgan) of Moncks Corner and Ryan William Hannah of Summerville; one sister: Elizabeth Hill of Spartanburg; two sisters-in-law: Anne N. McKenzie of Varnville and Bobbie Jean Wood (Donald) of Greenpond; and four nieces and nephews; special friend and loving caregiver: Mrs. Betty Moultrie.

“ You may not remember me but I was your baby sitter from many years ago. So sorry to hear of Naomi's death. She and Preston sold me and ex husband Guy their home in Hendersonville, and lived there until 1987. Now my grandson owns the house. Many cherished memories with all of you. May God Grant you strength, comfort, and peace during this difficult time.

“ Dear family, we loved Nomi so much. She was so important to Aunt Jody, especially. I loved her sense of humor and how she could make us cackle while maintaining her sweet Southern composure. She was a great lady who loved her family and exemplified Christian grace. Praying for her loved ones now and rejoicing that she is reunited with Preston and enjoying her heavenly reward.
Love,
Elsa
