“ I got to know Ms. Shearer while I was a student at RB Stall through the Youth for Christ Club and retreats and the trips to St. Augustine with the Spanish Club. I only had her as a teacher for a short period of time my senior year when I was trying to get through Trig. After many study sessions before school, after school, and during lunch, she was gracious enough to tell me it was okay for me to drop her class.....She was a very special person, and I hate that we lost touch. To her family and friends: May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

“ Patsy and I taught together for many years at Stratford. She was very kind and patient --- a conscientious, caring teacher. We served on many school committees together and Patsy was always willing to help. Quietly and with grace, she touched many lives.
"Well done, good and faithful servant."
May God bless you and comfort you.

“ Such a sweet, kind, caring lady.

I have fond memories of her when I was her student. I remember she used an overhead projector with the rolling film. I thought of Ms. Shearer often when I became a math teacher and did the same too:). I pray God's blessings and comfort to her family and friends.

“Patsy was my friend. I have no words to describe the goodness and grace she brought to this world and to me. We’ve lost woefully this week, but the other side has witnessed a great reunion. I wish I’d been there to see it because I’d feel happier, not sadder, as I do today.

I loved the way Patsy loved people. There was no equal to Jim; she worshiped the ground he walked on. Linda was that special sister with whom she shared a lifelong bond, the kind every girl wants. Porter and Shawn & family, rounded out her inner circle of love. But Patsy enlarged that love circle to her extended family, taking special care of the old and infirm. She faithfully let them know they were not alone, that she cared and sent reminders to remind them that she cared – a visit, a call, a stuffed animal, a cross-stitch done by her own hand, the “Christmas box.” Her circle broadened further to friends, work acquaintances, Sunday School children, nursing home residents, the lost in her community, and the less fortunate around the world. We admired the exemplary qualities Patsy possessed, but of them all, love was the best. Patsy had a simple formula: Christ loved her, she loved others.

As her obituary suggests – nobody got ahead of Patsy in the “smarts” department. Did it come naturally? Or did she just apply herself 110% to make the grade, as she did with the rest of life? Whatever area we’re talking about, Patsy went at it with all she was and had – in thick and thin, in good times and bad, in convenience and inconvenience, in health and in sickness. She persevered to the end; the lesson was not lost on me. I loved you, my friend. I rise with my hand to my heart and salute your life.

“ Dear Jim and family,
Patsy was one of the kindest, sweetest and most faithful people we have ever known.
Her service and devotion to the Lord, her family, church, students, friends and community was immeasurable. We have many fond memories of Patsy throughout the years involving activities within the church and school. Our loss is heaven's gain. Well done, good and faithful servant. Her deeds upon this earth will be greatly missed.

“ Such a sweet, quiet, and gentle soul. She was my teacher and she also taught one of my older brothers. Will never forget the memories of seeing her walking and reading around the goose creek area! Treated me very special once she found out I was the sister of one of her former students. I'm honored to know that she spread the love of Jesus Christ. Makes much sense now to know why she had such a sweet spirit within. My prayers are with the family as you cope and grieve your loss. May the peace of the Holyspirit rest upon you now to give you a hope and a comfort to know that she is with our lord Amen.

“ She was my teacher nearly 20 years ago at Stratford and I'm pretty sure I drove her nuts. It was for a class I didn't need to graduate and I was in my senior year so the motivation to succeed was pretty low. She tried so, so hard to get me to care and my stubborn behind wouldn't budge. She never seemed upset with me though. She was incredibly sweet and patient. I always meant to tell her that I eventually retook a similar course in college and finally got it right but never got around to it. I know she was a good person at her core and I'm sure she had a positive impact on those close to her. I'm sorry to hear about her passing - the world was a little better with her in it.
