*Only yesterday did I learn of Patti's passing. She and I worked together at United Airlines for many years. I also had the pleasure of going to several functions at her lovely home which she and Sonny made into cozy intimate events. she was a talented woman and I still have a beautiful floral arrangement that she made for me 25 years ago on my dining room server. I will always remember her family. Rest in peace Patti

“ Bob & I will never forget Patti for her infectious smile & laughter. We also share a Special bond with both Patti & Sonny since they endorsed our Membership at Potomac United Methodist Church when Pastor Jack Ewald was there. They were both right up front on the Altar with us as we took our Oath as new members of that lovely Church. Our memories go way back & I'm sorry that our lovely friend will no longer be with us. But Patti is happy now for sure in the hands of our wonderful Lord and Savior. She is at Peace and for that we are most thankful.

May the Lord Bless you all in this time of grief and mourning. We sincerely loved Patti as well as Sonny.

All our blessings are with you,

Love and in God's Grace,
