“ We didn't really get off to a great start. But as soon as we did, she became a part of my family, for my son. She helped bring him to where he is confident and sure of his work and he loves telling me stories of their time together. She was a true inspiration and light to my son Talon. He will never forget her and the lessons and help he recieved. I will never forget her because she never gave up on him. Talon and i will miss you and thank you for everything Mrs. Van Hoy.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Puffin's sudden death. She was the youngest sister of the three Evans girls from Bedford, NY, and I've been a friend of Barbara, her older sister, most of my life. I didn't know Puffin well as she was about seven years younger than we are, but she was always charming and I know cared so much about her Summerville family and friends. Puffin was Barb's last remaining family member, so that's always difficult, but I know she sends much sympathy to Cristin her niece, her nephew Ryan, and her brother-in-law Les.

“ Patty, known to me (her older sister) as Puffin throughout her life ... personifies what we mean when we describe someone as a "good soul". A person who is generous, loving, loyal and devoted to her family. I'm the only one left alive who remembers all the funny things she did, as a tiny, red-haired girl. I will cherish those memories, until I join her one day "upstairs". Her sister, Barbara Bandy from Wellington, Florida
