“ Patsy, Dink and Lindsay - Your Loss, and Ours, is an extremely troubling time for everyone we know. Paul was "The Golden Child" in my eyes. I have never heard anyone have an unkind word to say about him. SO very considerate and loving - always be proud of the things he did during his time here with us. My prayers are with you all daily - I Love You ALL dearly - if I could take your pain away I would. God Bless You, Jaye

“ Dink and Patsy and Lindsey, My heart goes out you. I pray for God to give you strength and peace in this terrible tragedy. I found this poem that I wanted to share with you, because it reminds me so much of Paul.*He kept at true good humour's mark
The social flow of pleasure's tide:
He never made a brow look dark,
Nor caused a tear,
but when he died.

“ Dear Dink & Patsy, The last time we saw your son, Paul, was in Rockville at Benjamin & Tiffany's wedding nearly two years ago. How handsome he was in his formal attire, as evidenced by the picture posted here on this site. In reading the guest book entries, we have learned that he was as "handsome" (good & kind) on the inside as he was on the outside. This is certainly a tribute to the two of you. May you be comforted now by all of his goodness, and cherish the time and memories that you shared with your son here on earth. God bless you all on this glorious Easter Day. “ Patsy & Dink Words can't explain how much we will all miss Paul. Everyone who new him loved him. Ever since I was 6 years old and the first time Paul and I played Tonka trucks, he always had a smile on his face and was so much fun to be around. I just want yall to know he meant so much to our family. I hope my kids grow up to be just like Paul (fun, happy, love the outdoors, honest, family person & loved and respected by the community) He will be missed but not forgotten. We love yall.

“ ~ Paul Bailey was "Everyone's Brother." He never had a bad thing to say about anyone. We will enjoy the memories that we have of the wonderful times we shared with him and miss the ones we would have had. He always made people laugh and feel comfortable with themselves when he was around. It makes me sad that we will lose his presence, but it also makes me hopeful that we will remember him and the way he treated people; in that perhaps we will do the same. We extend our prayers and open arms to his family, friends, and Fiancee' Lindsey in what is truly a devastating and confusing time. He will always be missed but never forgotten. ~ Carole Moore & Chad Hayes (Johns Is, SC)

“ I enjoyed playing around with Paul at the super club on Wednesday nights. Any time I seen Paul where it is on Cherry point boat landing, Piggly Wiggly or the Wadmalaw Mall he also had a nice word to say and he always ready to shake my hand or my head. I will miss Paul very much. He was so much fun to be around.

“ I wish to offer my deepest condolences to the Bailey family in the loss of your loved one. When we lose someone we love in death, the pain, grief and feeling of helplessness can be unbearable. I hope you can take comfort from Jesus' invitation recorded at Matthew 11:28-30 which reads in part, "Come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." So I pray that the God of tender mercies will continue to bless you and strengthen you through this very difficult time.
