“ Ms. Peggy, as our family called her, was a thoughtful dear friend. Our children and grandchildren knew her as their Stingray grandmother. Every time we were going to a game they would ask if Bill and Peggy were going to be there. It was probably because she always had candy for them. I personally sat beside her in section 232 for the last 9 or 10 years. It wasn't the same when she would miss a game. I'll never forget sitting there and hearing her yell as loud as she could, HIT HIM. Thank you for the friend you were to our family. Someone said if you go through life and make five good friends you have done well. I consider Ms. Peggy a good friend and my family will never forget her. Your life was a blessing to us. Thank you.
