“ Words are inadequate to express how much I will miss Peggy. While I am selfishly sad, I know beyond all doubt, that she is a very happy camper now and her new surroundings are glorious.

She laughed at my silly cutting up and listened when I griped and whined. She made a lasting impact on me though I only knew her a few years. Knowing Peggy was a privelege.

Condolences to Michael, Donna, little Taylor, all the cats, and all the rest of you.
