“ RC has been nothing less than The kindest, sweetest man I've had the pleasure to know. He has always treated me like a daughter, he was such a great Dad to his family. We used to exchange flowers and plants,..he Loved them! He loved the outside in general. He told his stories really slow,.. snickering at every detail,..he loved his stories and jokes. What a kind hearted family Man,..sincere, handsome, simple,..they don't make them like that anymore.. My only regret is that we didn't spend more time together,.. You are very much loved and you will be very much missed... Kimberly Gall

R.C was such a fun and kind person. I enjoyed visiting him in his home. The beautiful painting his daughter painted in the living room and him picking on the little dog about taking a bath. I thank God for him and his life. If we could all be so kind what a wonderful world this would be.

“ I have many cousins and they are all special to me and I love them. RC has always been a very special cousin and I will always remember him. He was so funny and loving even with his illness when I saw him in December he was concerned with my medical problems he was just a very caring man. I am sorry that he had to leave his family but I am so happy that he is with the Lord now and not suffering anymore. Love to his family may God give you all peace and comfort at this time.

“ I have so many memories of RC and the Elliott family. RC had the best memory of anybody I've ever met. You could ask him a question and he would give you the date tell you the day, weather, what he ate for dinner and what was on TV. Incredible mind and since of humor. He will live on in our fondest memories! My deepest sympathy to his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Love, Lynn Jennings

“ I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Your love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared your love.
