“ Randy thanks for all the precious memories since I was 6yrs old! You where the first to scare me with your one leg, you told me many stories such as you building the George Washington Bridge..So many great memories I'll cherish forever! Even when you called me during the pandemic to remind me that I was your "black son". I'll never forget you Randy, Rest in Peace now you're truly free and at peace. I'll always love you and keep you in my heart, love Michael

“ I was " church mom" to Randy, that's where we saw each other. We both attended Cornerstone Church with our families. We shared a special bond between us. My thoughts and prayers are with his family along with my love. And sending everyone hugs.
