“ Ray was a great friend to me when I moved to Kentucky with NCR Corporation. He and Annette made my wife Sue and I so comfortable with our move to a new state. Ray and I shared many a golf game, and a few beers as well. We also reconnected with Ray and Annette when we accepted new assignments back in Ohio, primarily in Cincinnati. Ray was a true friend, always with a positive spirit and outlook. He had a contagious laugh, and I will never forget him. May his soul rest in peace.

“ Ray and I were best friends for seventy years; words cannot express how I feel. We shared enough good times over the years to fill a book. Ray may be gone, but not forgotten.

We think of Faith, Family and Friends when we think of Ray. He was an outstanding Christian, loved his wonderful family, and had many friends. He and Annette sponsored our joining Bethany, were in our Sue Knight class and shared many family achievements with us. We will miss his warm smile and loving personality. Fred and Jane Hattabaugh

Our heart felt condolences go out to Annette and family of Ray. He is certain to have received a warm welcome by God in Heaven. Ray was one of the most genuine individuals I have met. His wry sense of humor and continual smile made everyone who interacted with him feel special. Ray will be missed by all but never forgotten. His positive attitude thruout his time in dealing with his illness was an inspiration to all who visited with him. Ray dealt with his impending passing with a peace that only a devout christian could possess. Don and Barbara Garraghty

I sat next to Ray in Community Band, and I still miss his strong trombone voice. I counted on him to help me sort out many of the rough passages.
