“ I still remember the day I first laid eyes on my Uncle Reggie. My Ma, Sandra, my Father, and sisters had come home to Maine from Puerto Rico. This man, my Uncle, kept asking me for a hug. Several hours later, I finally crawled into his lap and let him hug me. His hug was so rich and proud that I stayed; knowing I was safe in his embrace.

The day my Ma passed, Uncle Reggie and I were alone in a room on another floor of the hospital drinking tea and chatting when we both heard she had passed. His hug, again, made me feel safe.

What an amazing man! All my love to his beautiful wife, my cousins, their spouses, and his grandchildren. May you all find safety knowing the Prince of Peace has brought Uncle Reggie home to be with our lost family members again.
