“Matt, Jeannie, and children lift your family up in prayer at this difficult time. I, Jeannie, have countless childhood memories of Uncle Richard. When sharing this news with my children, both my older kids said, "I remember baking cookies at Aunt Pat's house".

*"You will know them by their fruits" (Matthew 7:16, 20)
Uncle Richard was consistent, strong, reliable, and honorable. There was never a moment when he was not this person, through all trials, through all joys, and through any sorrows. There is no doubt, that Uncle Richard's family came first and foremost. He has been the best husband to our loving Aunt Pat, never disappointing, always showing up, always consistent, persistent, honorable, and loving. Being a father to Brittany and Steven was his greatest accomplishment, he took this role seriously and did everything in his power to raise his children up to live with kindness, dignity, strength, and honor. He was the model father and husband. Uncle Richard was a person that stopped at nothing to help someone in need, always a listening ear to those that needed comfort, he was a shoulder to lean on, and a smile to lift you up when you were struggling. Uncle Richard will be missed beyond measure and by many, but he left his mark on this earth. We will be inspired by his life, to also live our lives in the ways that he did, so that his legacy remains strong, consistent, and clear. We love you, Uncle Richard. May you rest in peace with Jesus until we all meet again in his kingdom of heaven.*

Our sincere condolences to Pat, Brittany and Steven, and all his family and loved ones. Richard was a gentle soul, kind and devoted to his family. He had a quiet strength. I always enjoyed talking with him at gatherings.

Rest in peace and we will keep you and your family in our hearts and prayers.
