“ My memories go way back to high school and after. I remember Rick as Ricky. Always Ricky and Linda. We were all best of friends. From hanging out together to our daughters being born 8 days apart. Going on trips together. Birthdays with our kids. Linda being with me when my son was born. Hanging out in the pool. So many memories. Those were the best of times to me. I was really sad when Ricky and Linda moved to Summerville. But I understood. We went and visited 1 or 2 times. And then life gets in the way. I never stopped thinking about our good friends, Ricky and Linda, and Ashley and Travis. We reconnected on Facebook. It was great seeing photos of my favorite people. My heart is broken for you Linda and your family and for Ricky's mom. I will always love you Ricky and Linda. I will see you again one day. Rest in Peace Ricky Easler.
