“ Sorry to hear of Richard's passing. I had the pleasure of working with Richard for several years when he was starting his career. He had a great passion for his family, friends and work. He always expressed his feelings and openly wore his heart on his sleeve. His smile will always be remembered. I'm sure he is smiling down on us from Heaven. Eternal Memories. Orest T.

“ I have had the opportunity to work with Richard in couple of projects; the last one was until April this year. His intelligence and readiness to lead and get involved in tough tasks were his prominent qualities. Nobody can forget his candor, broad smiles and laughs, the innocence, the cheerful and jovial attitude.... My most memorable get-togethers and dinners were with him, whether those were in the US or in Canada.

I know that Richard was working diligently to eradicate one of the maladies affecting our society.... the suicides and the mental health issues among our fellow citizens.... what a noble cause...He was doing all the right things for the welfare of our society.

Richard, you're a role model for many of us.... we will certainly miss you!

Prayers to the family!

“ Had the blessing to share a bachelor party weekend and wedding weekend with Rickey for Steve & Alexis Kitchen's wedding. I'll never forget the stories and laughter we shared those weekends. Rickey was always laughing, always smiling, and being as we were from Pennsylvania, his southern accent was immediately so welcoming. Though our trip wasn't long, I knew we had immediately made a new friend.

I'll always cherish that weekend for so many reasons, but sharing them with Rickey was a blessing. Sending some prayers to your family and loved ones during this tough time.
