“ I remember on one occasion Mr. Bisbano seeing me sprinting down Madison Avenue because I was late (nearly) for school and he yelled through the passenger side window (from his butter colored Lincoln Continental,) "RUN! RUN!" I was painfully shy and started giggling and when he saw me arrive at school he told me that I should join the track team when I went to NMHS. Little did he know that I would take his advice and I did join, hopefully he never found out that I was the slowest girl on the team. I guess I needed more of his motivation. He was a very sweet man; everyone loved him and I am saddened to learn of his passing. My prayers go out to all of his loved ones. May he rest in peace.

“ I am so saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. Bob. He was the kindest, friendliest neighbor who always had a warm hello. I always enjoyed talking with him and watching him tend to his yard which easily could be featured in Southern Living magazine. He took great pride in his home and it showed. He was always there to chat with the children in the culdesac and would always share how much he loved seeing and hearing them play. He will be so dearly missed! Ms. Phyllis, my thoughts and prayers are with you. With love, The Litchfields (180 Carolinian Dr)
