“ For the Haskell family: from George and B. Haskell: We were sorry to hear about Bobby's death. I didn't think that when we met at the family reunion in Charleston in 2009, that I would not see my childhood friend again. He will be missed but my memory of our reunion is a good one. We tender our condolences for a friend and cousin to Patricia and family.

“ Bob was a thoughtful, talented man; a devoted husband and father who spent his life caring for his family. He loved the North Carolina mountains, especially his beloved maternal ancestors' homeland. We are richer for having him in our lives and shall always miss him.
