“ Rob was my husband Geo's mentor back in the Life Program. Geo cherished his friendship and considered Rob a brother not just best friend. Rob...my husband and I would speaker call and they'd tell funny stories from the late 80s and their antics. We thought it odd that Rob apparently blocked Geo but it is clear now why....Rob had already passed away we just had no idea. Geo and I will keep all of you in our prayers. It's still a shock that he's gone.
