“ As one of Rocky's first cousins, we grew up together in Riegelwood, NC. My sisters and I used to play with Rocky and his brother, Mitchell. I remember him to be a good kid. I also remember he had the curliest hair of all the cousins.

I was deeply saddened to hear about the loss of my cousin. My heart goes out to Aunt Elaine because she had already lost one child, and now she has lost her second sweet boy. It is always hard on our hearts to lose someone we love. However, I know Rocky will continue to live on through his daughters and grandchildren.

*I am sorry I could not come in person to give my condolences.

“ So sorry to hear this news, even though we did not see one another very often, we had a lot of memories growing up. They, Rocky and Mitchell were like brothers we never had, So many days we played, inside and out, our house and your house. We love you dearly and know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Elaine & family may God give you strength during this difficult time.
