“ Words can not express the loss of a good friend and fellow co-worker. I remember asking for help for a birdhouse project for our churches Vacation Bible School. He supplied all the materials from the wood to the nails. Wouldn't let me pay him for his time or materials. 40 Bluebird Houses. Kid's love them and still (10 years later) say the best thing they made and put together. Roger was a good MAN. Always helped others. That was his nature. He will always be missed. God Bless Roger.

“ Roger was my friend and coworker. We both shared a passion for woodworking. It doesn't matter what question I had, he always had time and advice. I always told people about the beautiful things he made, and loved looking at as many pictures as he wanted to show me. His memory will live on in his work, and in the lives of those he touched.
