“ My father was a very wonderful father , humble to the core ... worked up into his 80s on the Airforce base where he loved to have the gatherings with all his family. All my life our weekends were spent on the base. He served 24 years and 3 months and 3 days in the Navy.

I still can't get rid of his memorabilia he kept on my walls. The last years he spent with his Mother (my grandma Virginia till she passed in 2017) it was nice seeing them together.

Then he took on helping me care for his wife. My mom whom was bedridden from bad meds.

He then hurried before she passed to get thier mansion in heaven ready for my mom and him. She past a month after him.

They were definitely tied at the hip. And I never ever will or have seen the most amazing love story as theirs.

I miss you daddy.

And mom and grandma and grandpa. We might have had a very little family but in the ending years it was bigger than life.

Amen 🙏❤️

I'd like to add. Even when I had cancer he made the 4 1/2 hour trip to and from my chemo and all of my appointments at duke. In his 80s. He was just the best man ever.

I miss him so dearly with my whole soul.
