

Ronald Larson Brady

June 14, 1936 - March 22, 2014

Ronald Larson Brady Sr. of Summerville went to be with his Lord and Savior on Saturday, March 22. Ron was a retired superintendent of roads and drainage for Charleston County Public Works. A son of the late Florence Mae and Russell T. Brady, he was born in Trenton, N.J., on June 14, 1936. He was a graduate of Trenton High School and served in the Marines during the Korean War. After several years as a land surveyor in New Jersey, he moved his family to Summerville in 1976 to get away from the snow. He was an avid horseshoe player, square dancer and camper. He was also an outdoorsman who loved to garden, fish and hunt. Ron was a lifelong Episcopalian and was very proud that his 11 grandchildren were confirmed in the Episcopal Church. His family was his pride and joy. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, the love of his life, Carol Doolan Brady; two sons and their wives, Ron Jr. and Kathy Brady, and Craig and Laura Brady; a daughter and son-in-law, Brenda and Fred Rindge; 11 beloved grandchildren, Erin (BJ) Snipes, Mathew Brady, Jillian Brady, Alison Brady, Melissa Brady, Mitchell Brady, Brianna Rindge, Sarah Brady, Nicholas Rindge, Benjamin Rindge and Cassidy Rindge; and his precious great-grandson, Weston Lucas Snipes. He is also survived by a sister, Alice (George) Warner of Hamilton Square, N.J., and a brother, Fred (Ann) Brady of Upper Black Eddy, Penn., and several nieces and nephews. Friends and relatives are invited to join in a Celebration of Life at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 30, at St. Paul's Summerville, 316 W. Carolina, followed by a reception at the church's Doar Hall atrium. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to Summerville Soccer Club (Buddy Soccer), 102 Mayfair Court, Summerville, or the local charity of one's choice. ARRANGEMENTS BY JAMES A. DYAL FUNERAL HOME, 303 SOUTH MAIN STREET, SUMMERVILLE, SC 29483 873-4040.
