Lee was born August 27, 1975 in North Charleston, SC, son of Ronald L. Wiggins, Sr. and Diane Nix Wiggins of Ridgeville. Lee was the first male child born at Trident Medical Center. Lee was the life of the party and people always gravitated towards him. He was a people person first and everyone always seemed to confide in him. He could always give you a sense of relief in your most troubled time. He loved his friends and loved watching Clemson games. He enjoyed off time and spending time with his dogs. He enjoyed viewing soaring eagles and hawks. But most of all he was a great father and loved his children dearly. He will be loved and missed by all who knew him. "The Truth is out there".

Survivors, including his mother Diane and his father Ronald, are three daughters and one son: Karrie Wiggins of North Charleston, Samantha Wiggins, Jaycie Wiggins and Kyler Wiggins all of Givhans; his children's mother: Christina Smith; one brother: David Wiggins (Cassie) of Givhans and two nieces: Mia Wiggins of Givhans and Sophia Wiggins of Givhans.

“ When he was young he was trying to catch a bird. His Uncle Paul told him to go and get a salt shaker and sprinkle salt on the bird's tail and he would be able to catch it. it took him a little while to figure out that if he could get close enough to that bird to sprinkle that salt on his tail that he would be able to catch the bird without the salt. Lee tried for a long time to get that salt on that Bird's tail and his Uncle Paul just standing there laughing at him.
