

Ronald Smith

November 25, 1948 - May 23, 2024

Ronald Smith, 75, of Goose Creek, SC, passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 23, 2024.

He was the husband of Suzanne Pleasant Smith and the son of the late Oscar and Mae Jernigan Smith. He was born on November 25, 1948, in Columbus, GA. Him and his wife spent 18 years together.

He worked as a communications specialist, spending 30 years doing what he loved. Ronald enjoyed many things in his life including fishing, playing billiards, and spending time with his dog, "Daisy". He was known to have the best yard on the block, because he spent almost all of his free time working in his yard. Ronald loved his family with all his heart, with his proudest accomplishment being an absolutely wonderful husband and father to three wonderful children: Ronald Smith "Bubba", Todd Smith, and Brandon Smith; grandchildren: Jonathan, Ronnie, Amber, Aleah, and Andrew; as well as 10 beloved great grandchildren.

Ronald is survived by his wife, Suzanne Smith and children listed above; grandchildren: Jonathan, Ronnie, Amber, Aleah, and Andrew; as well as 10 beloved great grandchildren.

A Graveside Service will be held on Friday, May 31, 2024 at Beaufort National Cemetery beginning at 12:00PM.

“ My favorite memory of uncle peaches (Ronald smith) is when we were sitting at the island of their old home. He lights up a cigarette and I tell him "you know that those are bad for you and your lungs, they give you cancer" (I was a little girl lol) amd he looked at me and grabbed all his cigarette and throw them away. I will never forget that because he never smoke one cigarette after that.

Uncle Peaches is the sweetest most kind funny caring happy person that you ever get to meet. I will miss his beautiful smile happy attitude and him calling me Baabby! When I see him.

I'm thankful for the time we all had woth him and for my aunt Michelle she deserves the whole world and he was doing everything to get it for her.

Uncle peaches I hope your safe happy and looking down on us from heaven I miss you so much.
