“Rosalee was a part of my life since I met her at three years old when my parents moved me to Summerville. She was like a second mom to me and considered my two daughters her granddaughters. I'm so sorry to hear that she has passed away and will miss her dearly! She loved me and my daughters unconditionally and I have years of memories spent visiting with her and Joe before he passed away. Prayers for peace and comfort to her family and friends as this is a tremendous loss for us all! I will forever be thankful for the impact she had on my life as well as the lives of my daughters!
