“ Mrs. Ruth was one of the kindest people I've ever known. She always had something good to say about everyone. Everyday was sunshine for her. Her crochet work speaks for itself because she gave away many, many afghans that her tiny hands crocheted. She didn't like to get praise: she had a smile that lit up the room when she walked in. She loved Betty, Tresa and Julie because she smiled when she talked about them; especially when Julie bought her some new "things" as she would say. There will never be another Mrs. Ruth. She's in heaven now, enjoying her time with Jesus. She certainly left her "mark" on many people. Take comfort, family, in knowing that she's happy....Keep your faith and always rely on God.
