“ Dear Ric, Stephanie, Sarah Emily, Randy, Ronnie, If only I knew words of comfort that might lessen the tremendous grief you now face, I would most certainly call upon them today. I can only tell you that your sweet mother is now one of heaven's angels watching over all of you and she is free of life's pain. While I did not know her well, I knew from our first meeting that she was a loving mother and that her family was her proudest accomplishment. I know the memories you will keep in your hearts will provide you with comfort as you deal with the difficult times ahead. It was crystal clear that Miss Sarah loved you all and that she knew how very much you loved her back. Your family was a treasure that everyone wishes they could have. May God grant you the strength you need to go on. You are in our prayers and our thoughts. Carolyn

“ Dear Lucas family, I cannot believe your Sarah passed on the same day as my dad, Dick Kelley. I know you will miss her so much. We think of you often and remember so very fondly Aunt Mae and Uncle Claude and the fun reunions of old in Cheraw!

“ To Sarah's family: What a beautiful woman you have lost! She was one of our "glamorous" Charleston cousins who made holidays so special when they came to our granddaddy's and Aunt Annie's house. Lordy, what fun we had raiding the tall cupboard and garden and hiding under the house to eat the spoils. When it all started "Sonny" (Frank) and I were the youngest and Sue hardly on the scene. But Sarah always took part and made us feel so special. To this day, she was so beautiful (movie star type) to me and until the last time I made a trip to Charleston, she was "in charge." When my sisters and I consistently get lost trying to go home, she and Aunt Mae would consult on the latest and Sarah's words were, "I put them on the right road, but the last time I saw them they were heading back to the City" I really loved that woman and my heart aches for your loss but so happy for her to be in Heaven with no more worries. Love to all who loved Sarah from Cousin Bobbie Kirkley Kelley
