“ I am Sandi Hayes and Sarah was my aunt. We have been very close all of my life. One of my favorite pictures is her holding me when I was very young. She was such an outgoing person and so loving. Since I live in Washington state we visited often. One of my favorite times was when my Mom and I took a flight to South Carolina and we were met by a gorilla which Sarah had hired. We all laughed and had such a good time. Then we all went to an island for a week of so much fun. I will miss our phone calls, she was always so supportive of me. Life will never be the same for me. I will always miss her.
