“ To: Charlie, Sally's children, Sally's grandchildren, all of Sally's family and many, many friends - I, along with my husband Joe, wish you the deepest sympathy on Sally's death - the passing of a very dear and special lady. I first met Sally as the two of us looked through the glass at a beautiful baby on the warming tray in the maternity ward - seeing baby Tyler for the first time. I instantly bonded with Sally - and this has stayed strong through all the ensuing years. Sally, a lady of strong and active faith, is with her Lord and Savior, Jesus. Thank you, dear Lord, for her beautiful life - and give strength to her dear family to carry on her beautiful legacy. Love, Janet Mansfield-Scalia and my Joe.

“ I will always remember Sally as a wonderful, kind, always loving woman. Every time I got a chance to see her, her face would light up and a huge hug awaited. And from what I could see, she showed this unconditional love to everyone. My love and prayers go out to all of her family. I know there will be an immense hole in the structure of the family with Sally gone, but I also know that structure will never break because of the strong unit she and Charlie built together. Hold onto each other, but more importantly, hold onto the Lord. He will help you through. Love you all! God Bless. Debbie Houck
