“ Hi Jacky and Teresa,I am so sorry.I know what your going thru.This is your sister Jackie.All of us send our condolences. I would have loved to attend Scotty's services. I on the other hand had no idea he was sick. I wish one of you would have let us know.Scotty was a wonderful man.I did not know him that well but I always considered him my brother.I am so sorry that we all did not get to spend more time together. But that was our parents faults. We are still blood and thats what counts.I love you all very much and my thoughts are with you.Love Your Sister Jackie Rynes-Baker
