“ Met Sheryl through playing pool. Sheryl was always an upbeat person even through her cancer and other medical difficulties. Always think about her anytime I see chickens and roosters. Sheryl loved her family and friends dearly. May all find peace!

“ When I first began work with Komen breast cancer, one of my immediate contacts was board member, Marshall Allen. Sheryl helped me with every contact I made . She made me laugh, when I needed that positive support. She talked about her love of shooting pool, and her dear friends. I lost contact with her years ago, but I will always remember her laughter and smiling face. Thank you for letting me share, and my prayers are with her and all who loved her.

“ Sheryl was just such a fun, vivacious and caring person. I remember her and Joe coming over to the house and making sushi with us. Sheryl was good at it! I've known Sheryl since I was just a crappy teenager. lol. She was my Mom's best friend for so long. They were like Thelma & Louise. Truly. I remember one time she basically "broke" Mom out of the hospital and they went on a little joy ride down to Georgia. None of us had a clue what was going on! That was the kind of friend she was. If you needed her, she was there. That is very rare in this world. I feel very lucky to have known her. Rest in Peace Sheryl. We will miss you. - Trish

“ Sheryl was one of my first friends in the legal community back when I was working for a sole practitioner and she was with the Slotchivers. We lost touch for only a few years and then reconnected when I was hired at Buist Moore (later merged as Womble). She had such a good soul and giant caring heart. I admired how much she knew about things in the world. She was smarter than folks gave her credit for. Sheryl had an infectious laugh and sparkle in her eye that was beautiful. We had many heart-to-heart chats through texts and FBM, especially during her cancer battle. I really admired her tenacity and fight. Losing Sheryl was and is a shock and still deeply saddens me. I know that she's enjoying endless games of pool up in Heaven, but I will miss her bright spirit here on this Earth. I know we'll share a big hug when I eventually join her up there, and that makes me smile. My prayers and sympathies to her children and grandchildren, and Joe. She was very loyal and dedicated to her family and I can't imagine their sadness. I only hope they're able to find peace and keep her memories alive. Anyone who knew Sheryl was truly blessed. She was an amazing person.

“ I worked with Sheryl for many years at Buist Moore/Womble. She was a hard worker and was always ready with a quick smile and an easy laugh. We shared stories and pictures of our children. She loved Randall and Michelle so much and was proud of every accomplishment they had. Many years ago, Sheryl helped me find a weekend caregiver for my son - her former daughter-in-law Samantha. I saw her at a Christmas party last year and even through her struggles with cancer, Sheryl was smiling and happy and never dwelt on stories of her pain or how hard it was. I will never forget her laugh. Rest easy, Sheryl. My prayers are with you, Joe, Randall and Michelle.

“ Sheryl was my best friend for over 25 years. She used to say we were like sisters. I can't even begin to say how much she will be missed. She was always fun and the best cook ever! I'm thankful we were friends. She was really cool. I love you Sheryl.

“ I met you playing pool on Weds nights on different teams. We used to talk about chickens and issues we were having with them. Then we started playing on the same team and became fast friends. Your infectious laugh would always make me giggle inside. I even remember hearing your laugh on the radio when you won tickets to Bonnaroo and said that's are Sheryl. then it seemed like we would bump into each other everywhere, like rocking out at the fair, what a time we had. I will miss you so much my friend, until we meet again.
