“ I cannot say enough about how blessed our family feels to have known Stu. We met Stu in 2020 when our dear friend Daniel introduced our family to his parents. My parents had just made the decision to move from PA to Charleston and Daniel linked them up immediately to help them find a house. Little did we know at the time our friendship with the Nuckolls family would quickly turn into them being closer than our own family. Growing up I had never known my parents to have a “best friend couple.” Well shortly after their introduction- Stu, Shirley, Lonnie and Stacy did everything together. One of my favorite memories is when the Metz family and the Nuckolls family had cookouts and game nights. Stu was always protective about his burger recipe. And I see why, best burgers in all of Charleston! Every time any of us would come to visit we would see Shirley and Stu at church or for dinner or just because we wanted to get together. His hugs are something that I will miss, they delivered peace. His sweet spirit, and calming nature was something I looked forward to being around. When I saw Stu, he always asked how things were going, and I knew he always genuinely cared and had always covered us in prayer, almost like he already knew what my answer would be. I will truly miss him, and will always be grateful for the friendship that he gave my mom and dad. Heaven gained one of the best souls I knew.

“ I will never forget Stuart's infectious smile or his sense of humor. He was one of the youth leaders at HPB when I was a youth. He and Shirley were such a big part of my life back then. I know he will be sorely missed by all.
