

Susan Scarangelo Erb

June 4, 1945 - June 8, 2024

Susan Scarangelo Erb, 79, of Summerville, wife of the late Richard Erb, passed away on Saturday, June 8, 2024.

Susan was born on June 4, 1945, in Port Washington, NY, daughter of the late Michael and Ann Scarangelo.

She was a proud military spouse and felt blessed to have enjoyed 52 years of marriage with Richard before his passing.

She loved family, celebrating and decorating for the holidays, and most of all becoming a grandmother.

Susan had an unmatched zeal for life, and despite becoming an amputee in her later years, she always had a smile and a story for everyone she met.

Her passion for art and being creative began with her love of music, was evident in her cooking and home decor, was a huge part of her being an award-winning cosmetologist, and in early retirement due to her health, she went back to college and earned a degree in Graphic Arts and Design.

In her last years she thoroughly enjoyed spending all her free time creating art in all forms to the delight of everyone around her.

She is survived by: Children: Barbara Erb Wright, David Erb (Natalie); Grandchildren: Michael Hart and Fiona Erb; Siblings: Marianne Rough and John Scarangelo (Wendy); Nieces and Nephew: William Johnson, Christin

Kopicky (Ryan), Michelle Musgnug (Chris), Lisa Barenboim, Lori Gorgone, and Lucie Scott. In addition to her husband and parents, she was predeceased by her granddaughter, Amelia Erb.

A memorial service will be held for the residents of her retirement community on Thursday June 13th at 2pm at Summerville Estates.

A celebration of life will be held for family and friends at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Remember many days together on the beach in Port Washington.
Sending thoughts and prayers to Sue’s family at this difficult time.
Your cousin, Joanne

Joanne Mitchell - June 13, 2024 at 09:39 AM