“ To my dearest family and friends. Sister Wendy, Brother Brian and family, truly my heart is very grieve. I have never lost a husband but I have lost a father, mother and brother. Sad to say I now add another brother a good friend to that list brings a lot of sadness. Wes will missed at LRHC, also at all the family and friends gatherings. Most of all at are little family/ friends Christmas gathering just the 4 of us enjoying coffee and exchange a little personal thought gift s for one another. Wes was Wes, every where he went he was the same. We can all say so many good things about him. Are thought s and prayers are with y'all today and days to come. Wes, Wen said for me not to use any emoji's , but this one for you my friend 🌍love you shug 😊

“ Wes was definitely one of a kind. He always had your best interest at heart. What I wouldnt give to see his smile again or one of his many facial expressions that we all loved. He will forever be remembered as a great husband, father, son, brother and the best brother in law I could ever hope for.
