

Tawny Janiece England

October 13, 1971 - April 6, 2026

Tawny Janiece England, born October 13, 1971, in Pensacola, Florida, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, April 6, 2026. She was the daughter of James England, Sr. and Janice Florence Fish.

Tawny proudly served her country in the United States Air Force. Following her military service, she earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado. She will be remembered as a loving and devoted mother, daughter, and friend. Tawny had a heart of gold and would go out of her way to help anyone in need, especially her family. She found great joy in spending time with her family, whom she loved deeply. She enjoyed shopping for shoes and purses, getting her hair done, and traveling to new places whenever she could. Tawny was well known for her work at Sake House, which she called her exercise.

She is survived by her loving children: Aaron Carr and Nick Carr; her brother, James Caleb England II; her mother, Janice Fish and her husband, Steve; as well as numerous beloved friends and extended family. She was preceded in death by her brother, Dwayne England; and her father, James England, Sr.

A graveside service will be held at Long Branch Baptist Church Cemetery, 5500 Long Branch Cemetery Road, Jacksonville, FL 33234, at a later date.
