“ Served with Tom in Vietnam. I was a snipe and down in the engine room most of the time so I didn't know Tom real well. I do remember him as a nice guy and kindly soul. I will remember him in my daily prayers. R.I.P.

“ I am saddened to learn of the passing of Tom Hall. We served together aboard the USS Manley during our deployment to Vietnam and areas beyond. He and I spoke of our time in the Navy, but even more importantly of our relationship with the Lord Jesus. I am glad we have the promise of a much greater reunion coming soon. Dan Brewster

“ I'm thankful I had the privilege of knowing Tom while serving with him aboard USS Manley (DD-940). And, I'm thankful we were able to share 'war stories' at Manley Reunion in Myrtle Beach. Good times. Fair winds and following seas forever.
