

Todd Alvin Benjamin

May 31, 1988 - March 30, 2010

LCpl Todd Alvin Benjamin, US Marine Corps, 21, of North Charleston, husband of 2 years to Catherine Pierce Benjamin was called to be with the Lord on Tuesday, March 30, 2010. Funeral service with full military honors will be held Saturday, April 3, 2010 at 10 o'clock at Coastal Shores Baptist Church, 8310 Dorchester Road, North Charleston. Burial will follow at Dorchester Memory Gardens, 11000 Dorchester Road, Summerville. Friends may visit at James A. Dyal Funeral Home, Summerville from 6 until 8 o'clock Friday evening. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to: Coastal Shores Baptist Church, Youth Ministry, 8310 Dorchester Road, North Charleston, SC 29418. Alvin was born May 31, 1988 in Corning, New York, son of Todd and Dana Benjamin of Summerville and his father and mother-in-law Edward and Nancy Pierce of North Charleston. He was a graduate of Northside Christian School, class of 2006 and attended Charleston Southern University. He enjoyed shooting, camping and canoeing with family. He enjoyed life in general and he served as a youth group leader. He served with honor in the United States Marine Corps and did a tour in Iraq. Through his death he was able to give the gift of life to others. He was a patient care giver with Nightingale Nursing and Attendance and was a member of Coastal Shores Baptist Church. Surviving in addition to his wife, parents and father and mother in-law are: Brother: Philip M. Benjamin currently serving in Afghanistan, sister: Charlotte A. Benjamin of Summerville, maternal grandparents: Ernest and Charlotte Kapp of Howard, New York, great grandmother: Winnifred Thom of Corning, New York, paternal grandparents: Harold and Mary Benjamin of Addison, New York, Sandra and Eugene Rynearson of Bath, New York and great grandmother, Francis Longwell of Bath, New York, many aunts, uncles, cousins and family on both sides whom he was loved by all.

Tribute Wall

“ Todd Alvin Benjamin

September 29, 2022 at 10:11 AM