“ So sorry for your loss. Thoughts and prayers for comfort and peace. He will be missed greatly. A kind hearted man. I loved Tracy's laugh and sense of humor. I have sweet memories of babysitting him and his brothers Troy and Ray. The story of the bean burritos, my parakeet that would talk to them but it actually was me or my husband. Always asking him to break dance for us. He was really talented. Tracy was so sweet and kind and so fun! When he was a young boy he was riding on a cotton trailer at the Barney reunion and fell off and was run over by the wheel. They took him to get checked at the hospital and after awhile, he asked his Dad with big adorable eyes and so serious "when am I going to die?" They had always told him not to go into the road or he could get ran over and die. Tracy was so trusting in what his parents said, he thought he was surely going to die, but he was only bruised. I can remember going to his home in Farmington and meeting his sweet wife Teresa and children. So proud of the young man he had become and how proud he was of his family! I'm grateful for being able to stay in touch by Facebook. Graduations, military service, weddings, a grandbaby and still his sense of humor. Will miss you Tracy. But I know we will meet again.
Love,
Aunt Evelyn Thatcher Morris
