

Triston Knight Sekula

January 18, 1999 - January 26, 2022

Triston Knight Sekula passed away Wednesday, January 26, 2022 at the age of 23.

Triston was born January 18, 1999, at East Cooper Hospital in Mt. Pleasant, SC. He was the youngest of three sons born to Bill and Cherelle Sekula.

Triston was raised in Ridgeville and grew up fishing, playing ball and climbing trees with his brothers, Parker and Peyton.

He was a 2017 graduate of Ridge Christian Academy where he excelled in sports and established lifelong friendships. Triston lettered in football, baseball, basketball, and track at RCA. He also played Lacrosse with the independent Lacrosse league, The Charleston Tribe. Coach Peter Collins led them to the 2014 State Championship, which they won. In addition to sports, he loved hiking, photography and attending car shows with his friends.

Triston's greatest passion was, by far, his music. He loved writing music, going to the studio and recording his songs. He was the lead singer of his band, and loved his bandmates. He was never more in his zone than when he had a mic in his hand, singing with his band. He had so many talents and interest that brought into his life so many friends. He had such a genuine heart and generosity. He entered a room and induced smiles, he didn't have to say a word – his smile was all it took. He was magical and so very special. He will be forever a loss here on earth yet, a great addition to heaven.

In addition to his parents and brothers, he is survived by his maternal Grandparents, "Nanny"- Brenda Knight and his Grandfather - Victor Gardner

(Donna). He also leaves behind numerous Aunts, Uncles and cousins. He was especially close to his cousin, considered by Triston as a brother, Hunter Gardner. He is proceeded in death by his paternal grandparents Joe and Catherine Sekula.

Visitation will be held Saturday, February 5th, 2022, at James A. Dyal Funeral Home from 12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. with the Memorial service at 2:00 p.m., in the Dyal Chapel.

“ Tristan you were a pleasure to teach your Freshman year. You were polite and respectful. You always had a smile. The Lord has his reasons, but you are gone too soon. Rest in peace sweet young man. I send lots of love and prayers to your family and friends.

“ These photo of Triston where taken on the hike up to Jones Gap Waterfall and at the waterfall itself. He loved how hiking combined athleticism with adventure. It was raining on this day, so the hike was more difficult than normal but he took that challenge with a smile because we had already hiked this trail a few times before on clear skies in different seasons. Triston loved going to Table Rock State Park, Wild Cat Falls, Jones Gap State Park and 40 Acre Rock with friends and it didn't matter if it what season or how the weather was he was more than happy to be there. The Table Rock hike became a special place for us, being the first time we went with his friend Daniel became the place where he asked me to be his girlfriend so we kept going back for anniversaries or for opportunities to hike and both have time for mindfulness and search for peace within ourselves. He has a beautiful soul, and ever since I first hugged him I have never been able to “let go” of him, I have never loved someone so deeply or with so much of me. He taught me so many things about life, from practical things about how to change tires to spiritual things about healing your inner self and honestly he's a huge reason as to why I am who I am today, loving him made me a better person and a better friend. Triston loved his friends and family more than y'all could possibly know and even though he is gone earth side, every single person he made an impact on will feel his presence for a lifetime that's how amazing he was and his place in my heart and reservation in my life will still always be there. To his family, I wish y'all knew how much he loved y'all too that love was overflowing and it rubbed off on me too and I will always have y'all in my heart and prayers.

Triston, you are the best thing to ever happen to me and I'll always love you more than I can ever explain. To the mountains under the moon and back ❤️

“ I loved Triston as I did every single athlete at Ridge Christian Academy. He was a great young man that always smiled. And I wish I'd of done a better job of keeping in touch with the young adults and kept encouraging them. I pray for his mom and all of his family, and I hate that anyone would use his death to say negative things that will only hurt his family and loved ones including me. God loves is all and especially loves the ones that are hurting

“ Triston, you were one the greatest friends I could have had in my life. You helped me through the darkest times and continue to have that smile on your face. You will always have a place in my heart brother. I'm sorry I couldn't come home sooner and see you, but I love you man and I miss you. I'm grateful for talks we had and the fun we had. Gonna miss just the late night rides with you brother. Thank you for everything
