*I am the only daughter of Uncle Raymond's youngest brother, Ottis. I loved Uncle Ray so much though I am way out in Arkansas. There is a way the spirit of a person you loved lets you know they are near, even if no one ever took the time to let you know they passed. Uncle Raymond, I have had you so close at heart and was crying, now I know why. This was confirmed today when I got your attorney's letter. You looked so much like Daddy. There is only one sentimental thing I wish I could have. I gave you a square cobalt blue tequila bottle, last time you visited. I got it when I worked in Santa Rosa and you wanted it. If someone in the family has it, I would like to have it for my personal urn someday. I will be so happy to see y'all someday. I miss you.
Your loving niece,*
