

Tyler Logan-Allen White

November 21, 2004 - February 27, 2024

Tyler White, 19, of Charleston, SC, son of J.R. White and Holli Bishop passed away on Tuesday, February 27, 2024.

Tyler was born on November 21, 2004, in Charleston, SC. Tyler enjoyed everything from boating, fishing, video-gaming to watching his favorite anime “One Piece”. He was very strong-willed and hardworking, which was a product of his upbringing. Tyler had a love for firetrucks, which was influenced by his father, who dedicated years to the business. He loved to experiment and didn’t have a problem taking over the dinner plans for the evening. Tyler was an all-around special soul, who had an impact on so many during his time on earth.

Surviving are his parents; siblings, Joseph Edward White, and Brayden Thomas Powell; grandfather, John Edward Bishop; grandmothers, Glenna Louise Kinsey and Terri Henshall White; aunts, Zoey Bishop (Miranda) Trisha White (Nicholi Heater), Ann Gauthier, Candice Bishop, Polli Elliot and Georgi White; uncles, Dale Morris (Deborah), Billy Ellis (Kathy), David Morris, Tony Morris (Christi), Jamie Bishop and Andrew Bishop; cousins, Savannah Morris, Landon Morris, Hannah Leary, Elizabeth “Lizzy” Leary, Tiffany Oldfield, Jerry Elliott, Dana Jones, Kiara Bohannon, Colton Bohannon, Zoe Bohannon, Silas Morris, Shana Bishop, Taylor Bishop and Ari Schwartz; stepfather, Andrew T. Powell. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Robin E. Bishop.

“ Tyler I love you. You're my baby nephew. I know we missed out on some time. But I'm so proud of who you were. Loved being your Aunt. The world's missing out on an amazing light. Your smile was true and bright. I guess you win this wrestling match. Please take care of your dog niece for me. I love you buddy
