Jenna Lou was born on February 17, 1937 in Josephine West Virginia, daughter of the late Harold Quincy and Garnet Monk Meadows.

Granny's life was about sharing love with everyone by feeding them, by holding them, and by keeping them warm. This was reflected in her daily life. She cooked regularly and every Sunday supper was a family affair. She made quilts for over 50 years and was quilting last Thursday morning. Her nurturing extended to all, including flowers and stray cats. But above all she loved children. Her newest and most treasured role was Gigi to her three great-grandchildren.

She is survived by five children: Mark Ford Hurley (Elyece) of St. Charles, IL, Randall Craig Hurley (Nancy) of Venice, FL, Jewell Renee Bruce (Bob) of Ladson, Jayne Robin Lemelin of Summerville, and Jay Royce Williamson (Jennifer) of Cumming, GA; eight grandchildren: Benjamin Bruce, Audrey Darby (Mike), Joseph Lemelin (Niki), Megan White (Jacob), Catherine Lemelin (Fiance` Austin), Craig Hurley, Michael Lemelin, and Katie Williamson; three great grandchildren: Aiden, Caroline, Atticus; dearly beloved sister: Jewell Ann Whitmer (Jim) of Cool Ridge, WV; five brothers: Harold "Buzzy" Meadows of Northfield, OH, Douglas Meadows (Linda) of Little River, SC, David Meadows (Barbara) of Odd, WV, Daniel Meadows (Jennifer) of Ghent, WV, and Thomas Meadows (Nancy) of Odd, WV; one sister-in-law: Emil Meadows of Glen Burnie, MD, who is the widow of brother, Dennis Meadows.

“ One Wednesday evening in late spring or early summer, I saw Mrs. Jenna Lou and Caroline at the bird feeder at Stallsville and was privileged to participate in the gentleness and love she had for her great granddaughter and for wildlife. Her soft, gentle voice, and adoring eyes as she stood with her family at the playground after church, watching the children play, and the way she made me feel so cared for and loved are things that made her the kind of lady that will truly be missed. She is the kind of godly woman of Christ that I would like to become and I am honored to have known her. My prayers are with all of you.

Love,
