“ Having Nana as a grandma has been one of the greatest gifts. Throughout my entire life I've always known that Nana would always, always, be there for me and honestly anyone. if you ask anyone who knew her they'd all say "she'd do anything for anyone" whatever you needed Nana would help, no questions asked. it takes a beautiful soul to care like that. she'll be so missed, but I know she's dancing in heaven and is looking after everyone she loves. we love you Nana.

“ I am forever grateful for “Miss Ginger”. I never feared for my children’s safety. She kept my son, Philip, for about 5 days straight, yes, even overnight, when I had a C-section with second baby, Katie. My mom had passed away that year and she stepped up. What a great lady! My heart goes out to the family left behind. May God bless and keep you until you meet again. Sandra (Sandy) Evans Dorning

“ Ginger which the kids called her Nana was my Angel on earth. She took care of my girls Christina and Rebbeca for 11 years. She helped me so much just like a Mom would. My girls Loved her like a Grandmother. She always went over and beyond taking care of my girls. We became a part of her family. I know her reward in heaven will be great, because she is a giver of Love,joy and whatever she could . This Angle is watching over us from a far now. She Loved her family ,friends and hockey. I am praying for you Papa. Nana was so proud of you and her kids and Grandkids. We will miss her greatly but I she will still be close to us all. Find the Joy and Laughter in all the great memories. Love you all. Kathy an David Jarrell.
