“ When I think about Bill, three words come to mind. Faith, Family and Servitude. A kind and gentle man, Bill believed in what he stood for. His service to his church, his family, his country and his community were the essence of Bill. He and Marion continued to serve military families through their dedicated volunteer work at the Air Force Family Support Center for many years. Bill and Marion strongly believed in “giving back” their time and talent to military members and their families. Heaven surely gained a faithful servant. Much love and hugs to Marion, Gary, Rosie and family.
