

William "Bill" Mackintosh Levay

July 22, 1939 - December 17, 2023

William "Bill" Mackintosh Levay at the age of 84 passed away peacefully in his sleep on December 17, 2023. Bill was born on July 22, 1939, in Aberdeen Scotland, son of the late Douglas and Nancy Levay. Bill grew up in Scotland attending boarding school at Glenalmond Trinity College. When he turned 21, he moved to Karoi, Rhodesia to start a tobacco farm, during his time there he fell in love and married Frances Thomas. After marrying they moved to the States to start a family. Bill and Fran adopted three beautiful children.

Bill is survived by his loving wife Frances Levay, his loving children Andrew (Christina) Levay, Ian (Colleen) Murphy and Paula (James) Bass. Bill also leaves behind his cherished grandchildren Duncan Levay, Cecilia (Blake) Graham, Caroline Murphy, Michael Murphy, Layna Bass, Annika Bass and Quinlyn Bass.

Although Bill is leaving behind his loved ones, he will be joining deceased family members most importantly his grandson who he has been longing to meet, Declan Bass.

This Scottish soul was loved by everyone. Bill was devoted to his work, his religion, his talents and his family. Bill was remembered for his stories, jokes, goofy faces and songs. His voice captivated everyone. In his spare time, Bill would write poetry for his children and study genealogy. This amazing man will be missed but his memories will be forever cherished.
