“ Mrs. Hayes, Laura and family, I was sad to hear of your father's passing. Thinking of you at this difficult time. He was a Navy man like my brothers. God bless you all and may he rest in peace. Sincerely, Pat Edwards

“ Mrs. Hayes and Laura,

My heart is with you at this time. Laura's face always beams with joy when she shares stories of her parents at work, and it is clear how much love has always been in your home. Sending you lots of love and sympathy.

“ Mrs. Hayes, Laura and family,

I'm sending you prayers. Rest assured he has gained his wings and is watching over you all and his gardens. I remember meeting him a couple of times and once in particular at the house for Laura's birthday party a couple of years ago. Hugs.... Diane Hansford

“ Mrs. Hayes and Laura,

My thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time. I'm thankful I had the opportunity to meet Bill at Laura's birthday party. He was a man of few words but his smile was contagious. Continue to hold on to the sweet memories you all shared. -Tiffany Magwood

“ Mrs. Hayes, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. We did not get to spend much time with you and Bill, but the time we did spend will always be in our hearts. Such kindness is not often experienced, but we sure did. You will always have such wonderful memories of your sweet Bill. We are with you in spirit and send loving hugs. Our love, Janet and Bill

“ *Mrs. Hayes,
I only got the chance to spend a few hours with Bill building your fence and weed whacking the ditch. And while he was a man of few words, he was a man of many smiles. I wish I had gotten to know him better. I've told Laura to be sure to let me know if you need anything. You are both in my thoughts and prayers. - Rich Morvin*

“ Dear Barbara and Laura,

I'll always remember Bill as a man of few words but with a big heart, warm soul, and wonderful sense of humor. I'm so sad for your loss and am here for you in any way you need me.

*All my love,
Karen*
