“ Hi Dad, We think of you often and I know you are in a much better place. I can tell that you are still advocating for all of us from the other side and know that you think of us just as often as we think of you. I thank you for the prayers you undoubtedly still say for us and for the interventions you have made this past six years. I know I will see you again and thank you for being the best Dad and friend I could ever have. I love you, Billy

“ Hi Dad, I'm writing a little earlier than usual this year. I am missing you and very thankful for the wisdom you passed on to me. I wish I could have worked more jobs with you. We bought a fixer upper house here in Alaska and you would absolutely love it! On the water and plenty of projects. I should have paid more attention to you so I could have learned how to fix things. It's hard to pay top dollar to a contractor when I remember you used to fix the same things. You took a lot of pride in your work and did not charge as much as you could have. Olivia is growing fast and will skate I the Pacific Northwest Regionals competition in Washington State this year. I know we will all be together again some day and that there is a much better place. I miss you dearly Dad and wish I could spend some time with you now. I love you, Billy

“ Bill, I think of you often. I miss the laughs, smiles and most of all your friendship. I'm sure you are looking down at us smiling at how complicated we make things knowing that some day we will be with you and see how love makes everything so easy.

“ It has been three years and it is amazing how much Olivia favors Dad. I have reflected on many things Dad taught me in life, wow you don't even realize how much a Dad is teaching you until he is gone. I know that Dad is in a new body in a place so beautiful we can not even imagine. We are all going to be together again and I know the Lord has great future plans for us. Can't wait to see you again Dad! It will be great to laugh with you again. Love, Billy, Kim, Olivia, Madison

“ I was sadden to read of your loss. I too have loss dear love ones in death. But my true comfort came from above. As 2 Corinthians 1:3 states, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." This helps us to appreciate that God can help his faithful servants to endure any problem or challenge. Please look to him to bring true comfort at this sad time. I am again sorrow about your loss.
