Curtis's, Roy, Genel just found out about your Dad. I've known WD for 35 years. He was a great person and a true friend of mine and an honor to call him my friend. Lately we talked by phone. I know he has left a void in your all's lives and in mine too. We will all miss him. I'm in Morristown TN at 131 North Henry Street. Love to hear from you . WD spike often of each of you. You had a great Dad. May God bless each of you.

“ To the Graham family, I loved this wonderful man. I met him through one of his ole school mates, and my friend Mrs. Jean Johnson. It was my pleasure to get to spend many hours with those two and listen to ole times. I know he was so proud of his 3 sons and grandchildren. My heart is heavy knowing he is no longer among his family but know he has gone to walk those streets of gold and to sit with ole friends and family that have gone before him. I know your memories of him will forever be with you all. May God bless you all. Peggy Warren and Gerald Dwayne Dean.
